FAILING TO PRODUCE A CERTIFICATE.

Frederick Harford, 21, gentleman, of Down-place, Windsor, was summoned for failing to produce a driver's licence when driving a motor-car on the highway, in the parish of Taplow, on April 24th.—Defendant pleaded guilty.—P.S. Heath stated the facts. Defendant, when asked for his licence, said he had left it in London.—Defendant, who now produced his licence to the Court, was fined 17s. 6d., including costs.
